

Profile Dipl.-Ing. Katrin Mehrer

Co-Consultant for Conflict Communication

Graduate Engineer of Landscape Planning (TU)

Current Professional Activities

Co-Consultant of vorgespräch – conflict communication in daily technical business

- Co- conceptual design, development and realization of tailor-made training and consulting services regarding conflict communication in daily technical business
- Organization of the daily business of vorgespräch

Head of the section environmental education and education in sustainable development of an environmental association

- Development and realization of environmental goals and positions in the regional association
- Coordination and implementation of pedagogical activities for different target groups and propagators on federal state level
- Support of volunteers within the federation

Professional Experience

Freelance Communication Trainer

- Design and realization of the communication module for the education programme for propagators of a nationwide acting educational institution
- Design and implementation of diverse communication trainings for individuals
- Training assistance in the management communication area

Freelance Pedagogical Consultant for propagators

- Development and realization of pedagogical consultancy services and seminars regarding „Education in sustainable development“

Exhibition Planner of an educational centre

- Planning and conception of the exhibition with regards to content and didactics
- Supervising the technical implementation of interactive exhibits

Landscape Planning Staff Member in diverse offices

- Blueprint and detailed engineering in landscape architecture
- Planning regarding regional spatial development